“NEW EVERY MORNING”

Through the Lord’s mercies we are not consumed, because His compassions fail not.

*They are new every morning;
Great is Your faithfulness.*

*“The Lord is my portion,” says my soul
“Therefore I hope in Him!”*

Lamentations 3:22-24

Our Annual Christmas Potluck

Prior to the annual potluck dinner held in the fellowship hall, the Board of Directors met in the glass room at the Mountain View Congregational Church. Pictured here are CJ Leetch, Verne Blalack, Kim Short, Don Taylor and Duane Little.

Ellie Arguimbau softly plays Christmas carols on her cello as background music during the Christmas Potluck. Thanks, Ellie

Jim Taylor, followed by the Mace family, chooses from the variety of food at the Christmas Potluck.

A nice group of well wishers came together to enjoy the dinner.

Our thanks to Beth and Stephanie Otto and Kathy McPeak for serving as hostesses and taking charge of the kitchen before the Potluck while the Board of Directors held their monthly meeting elsewhere in the church. We certainly appreciate having the use of the Mountain View Congregational Church's facilities throughout the year.

Judy Blalack, right, congratulates the Shorts on the excellent tile job, spearheaded by Kim, around the wood fireplace at the ReUse Store. Judy decided the Shorts definitely deserved the certificate recently donated by Sam's Restaurant. Thanks Jackie & Wade Henderson of Sam's and Kim & Shorty Short. ☺

Verne assesses Nancy Elliott's stairs that definitely need replacing. Later Rick Gilbert also looked at them. Verne & Rick decided this Greater Blessings project will be best tackled in the spring when the ground is thawed.

We do need help for Verne!

Someone with a pickup willing to make deliveries or pick up donations—maybe once a week or on call. We can help with some gas money.

A bookkeeper with QuickBooks expertise.

More experienced volunteers to help at the ReUse Store.

Call Judy at 682-3240.

Without a trained volunteer manager willing to work several days a week, the ReUse Store was closed between Christmas and New Years. Store manager, Verne, was working on bookkeeping at home in preparation for 2014 taxes. Not only does he keep track of house payments for 12 homeowners, Greater Blessings repayments for 7 homeowners, expenses for construction on these projects, income from our fund raisers, income and expenses from the ReUse Store including salary and withholding for the hired help, taxes, tithe, etc., he also serves as treasurer for the organization. On his "days off" from the ReUse Store he usually can be found picking up donations or delivering sold items or seated here doing bookkeeping.

Below are some shots of our work in 2014

Cornerstone Church ladies, Lois Dahlberg and Joye Reed, bring gifts to the Haynes home dedication.

Paul Kelly presents a Gideon Bible to Bob at Bob Larson's Greater Blessings ceremony.

Mary Kay Hanson, at right, shows the railing installed as a Greater Blessings project at her home.

Rick Wood supervises as the Mace children, Julie, Ethan and Bethany help frame around the windows. Alex was busy inside framing doors. Rick Gilbert and Mike Humphrey were installing a matching window on the left side of the front door.

Some of the Fuller Center Bike Adventurers help a crew of Idaho Servant Adventurers from the Shoshone Mountain Retreat. They are working on the Greater Blessings roofing project at the Larson home in Kellogg. The other Bike Adventurers were installing siding at the Mace home.

[Board elections]

Verne insisted I give him the camera before he let me read the letter from the Fuller Center Bike Adventurers. The group spent time here working on the Mace and Larson Greater Blessings projects. They sent a check for $3091.43. Of that, $1000 came from the organization and $2091.43 from a couple, Greg & Jenny Zeroun, who bike the whole way from East to West with the group and chose to donate this to us from the money they raised. Wow!

Verne drops off the metal skirting to go around Debbie Bornitz's trailer. This will be another project finished in the spring when we have volunteer helpers. Work has been completed under her home winterizing her pipes to keep them from freezing.

We were delighted when Kim Short decided to replace the shaggy carpet around the wood stove at the ReUse Store with tile. Her husband, Shorty, did help some even surviving catching the falling stove pipe on his head.
