Riders begin assembling at the Enaville Trailhead for the 24th Annual Ride the Wall event. Photos by Judy & Linda

Rick Schaffer, a longtime Friend of the CDA Trail, delivers the welcoming orientation to the awaiting riders.

Beautiful time for the “Ride”

Although the day was warm, it had cooled off enough by 6 PM that the temperature was just right for the event.

After the long wait last year due to COVID 19 when we had to finally do a virtual ride, this was a very welcome sight to see our friends return and new participants lining up to register and ride. A total of 71 registered. ☺

Many volunteers were needed as usual for setting up the registration awnings where shirts and meal tickets were handed out and waivers were signed and for checking the route. Helpers were Kathy and Patrick Stanford, Linda and John Amonson, John Boy Delaney, Ellie Arguimbau, and John Wilson from Careywood. Other volunteers were the EMTs including Kathy McPherson and Steve Knox, and Duane Farkas, Jim McFeely, and Sean Curran from the Shoshone Medical Center. Fire Chief Mark Aamodt was on hand to help with an ambulance if needed. Tom Richards served a delicious BBQ.

Some of the volunteers are Cathy Stanford, John and Linda Amonson, Judy Blalack, and John Boy Delaney.

Since Judy & Verne Blalack no longer ride their bikes, they joined the group using their walkers. Chey came along wearing his booties to protect his paws where the asphalt was hot.

And whoever compels you to go one mile, go with him two.

Raffle Winners

Diane Witherspoon offers tickets for the various raffles assembled by Kathy McPeak.

Linda Amonson holds the bowl tightly as Rick Schaffer digs deeply to draw the winning ticket for the 50/50 raffle.

Nancy Ebel had the honor of being the oldest rider in the event. She accepts a Sam's Restaurant certificate from Judy Blalack. Wish we all were in such good shape as she is.

Rick's wife, Dena, was the lucky winner of the 50/50 raffle.

This young man, Will Cleary, from Minnesota traveled the longest distance. Judy presented him with an auto emergency kit donated by Les Schwab.

Other winners were Kathy McPherson and Mike Witherspoon.

Coming Events

- July 13—Board and committee meetings, 5:30 PM, Mountain View Congregational Church, Kellogg
- Aug 7—Pinehurst Days; Fuller Center Golf Scramble, Noon. Early registration $40 until July 31—then $50
- Sept 11—24th Annual Walk-A-Thon, 9 AM, Kellogg

Our thanks go to these sponsors who had ads on this year's Ride the Wall shirts: The Snake Pit; Stovern Supply-Federated Auto Parts; Two Wheeler Dealer; Silver Valley Dental Care; John and Marian Wilson; and Silver Valley Family Practice—Linda Jo Yawn. Their $ helped our shirt expenses.

Project coordinator, Jim Dodd, and Shoshone Mt. Retreat/Idaho Servant Adventurers manager, Clint Kunze, discuss how to help with the roof repair on the Fuller Center building, and tool organization at the Blalack home.

We have a great relationship for labor with the Idaho
Servant Adventurers youth from Shoshone Mt.
Retreat. We need supervisors to help them learn some construction skills on projects with your neighbors in our valley.

We had seventy-one supporters registered for our 24th Annual Ride the Wall bike event on June 21st, the Summer Solstice. The weather was great and the pulled pork BBQ was very tasty.

Our next Fund Raiser is our 9 hole/4 person Golf Scramble held during Pinehurst Days beginning at noon on August 7th.

$40 fee for early registration until July 31st—then it is $50.
