Silver Hills Craft Fair

The Silver Hills Craft Fair was again a successful fundraiser for the Fuller Center – Kathy McPeak assembled several baskets with donations from local businesses, which were raffled off at the craft fair. Proceeds from the basket raffle go to the Fuller Center. Thanks, Kathy, for always being so willing to step up and help!

Linda Amonson won the girl's basket

Layne McNeas won the men's basket

Tina Hojem won the spaghetti dinner basket. It was delivered to her booth at the craft fair. Pictured are Bridget Hojem, Tina Hojem, Kathy McPeak (who assembled all the baskets) and Josie Jurkovic.

Sandra Huston won the boy's basket

Prize winning was a group effort. Kathy McPeak holds the pot, Linda Amonson draws the ticket, and Josie Jurkovic reads the name.

Brians Home Dedication - December 14, 2024!

We're SO excited to announce that after some delays, Brian's trailer is ready for its dedication!

Originally planned for last December, we faced challenges installing foam insulation during the colder months and had to wait until spring to move forward. The reality is, our projects have been progressing slowly due to a shortage of volunteers.

We need people with free time and a willingness to help. While we especially need skilled construction supervisors, there are plenty of tasks for those with less experience. If you have a knack for organization, don't mind some physical work, or just want to make a difference, we can find a place for you.

John Boy, Barbara Canterbury, Brian Canterbury and Bob Whitman stand inside the trailer in Osburn after they have conducted the pre-move-in walk through.

Judy (and Chevy), Brain, and John Boy stand outside Brian's soon to be home.

Everyone is so excited for Brain to be a homeowner!

You're Invited!
